Filipino | Catholic | Married | 44 years old | 2 kids
Hong Kong | 18yrs experience

Hi Sir/Madam,

I am Ma. Cristina, 44 years old. I have two kids, 1 daughter and 1 son. Their ages is 25 years old and my son 23 years old. They stay together with my husband. You can call me Cristina or Sing-sing is my real nickname.

I work before with one employer for 17 years and 3 moths. They sole reason why we did not continues was because they had to move to Australia. I took good care of their family. I took good care of their daughter when she was 9 months old until 18 years old. They best thing happen to me is I work with them for a long time because they treated me like their own member of the family.

I also extremely friendly and caring person. I am efficient with cleaning and cooking. I'm able to make foods from different cuisines whether that Asian or Western. I also no problem accepting critique and criticism and tastes.

I am now employed with Chinese family 3 adults and 3 kids. I stay with them 2 years contract. They are a good family too but they hired 5 helpers and two drivers. The reason why I don't sign another contract us I can't get along with some helpers. I decided to find another job, a new employer that is suitable for my job & experience. Hope they treat me as a member of their family.
