EVA

Filipino | Catholic | Single | 45 years old | 1 kids

Philippines | 14yrs experience

Hi Sir/Madam or Singsang and Tai tai,

I'm Eva 45 years old a single Mum currently residing here in Albay Bicol Philippines. I'm a mother of one daughter who is now a 17 years old and a senior high student now and by next year she will be in University already.

I belong to a big numbers of family coz I have 3 sisters and 2 brothers all in all we are 6 siblings in the family but sad to say that all of my parents are died already. I live here in the province of Albay Bicol Philippines, one of the beautiful place here in the Philippines coz in our place you can see the most beautiful perfect cone Mayon volcano and we have a lot of beautiful beaches and beautiful people also in our place not only physical appearance but in their attitude also. The main reason why I still want to work again in Hongkong because I still need enough budget for my daughter schooling in the next coming years coz i want to give her as much as I can a good future also. My experience for working in Hongkong for 14 years i know a lot of duties and responsibilities as being a domestic helper in Hongkong such taking care the children, starting in the morning before they go to school and until they come back from home and even bringing them to their extra curricular activities. I know already how to handle the different kinds of situations and managing the house in terms of doing different kinds of household chores such as cooking, laundry, ironing, marketing, cleaning, taking care the pets such as dogs and etc. For 14 years in Hongkong i knew a lot of Chinese dishes and even some of the popular delicacies in Hongkong especially during Chinese New year. And not only regarding foods and duties i learned in Hongkong but also their cultures, their do's and don'ts the you need to follow and respect as you working in their family and I'm already familiar in the different places there in Hongkong. The reason why I'm looking for a new employer coz I really need to have a new job now to support my daughter's needs most especially for her schooling and I want to earn more also for our future since I'm the only one who can support her. My expectation for my future employer is just so simple is just i want them to treat me nicely and be kind to me coz in terms of jod i can assure them that as much as I can i will do my duties and responsibilities also to satisfied their standards for having a helper as part of their family. My daily routine in my previous job at around 5:30 in the morning i wake up to prepare their breakfast for the 2 girls and for the couples after they leave the house that's the time i start my everyday duties such as laundry, marketing, cooking lunch for the 2 girls that need to bring in school, cleaning the house, ironing, preparing their foods for dinner and at 4 o'clock i need to pick them up in the school bus stop just down in our building, after they come back home from school they need to eat snacks while doing their home work, and sometimes if they have their extra curricular activities I'm the one who will bring them there and after that I need to cook and prepare their dinner before dinner i need also to help them to take a bath and prepare their clothes after bathing and at around 7 o'clock we eat dinner already until 8 or 9 in the evening i finished my duties. I have a reference letter from my previous employer that I can show to my future employer if it's needed. My skills are cooking, baking, teaching, i can handle outdoors activities such as swimming, hiking, running, playing outdoors and indoors and etc. I'm a kind, responsible, hardworking, trustworthy, have initiative, strong, honest, lovable, caring, and most of all a God fearing person. Hope and pray that soon i can find a good and God fearing employer also for the help of your good office/agency. Thank you and God bless.
