Good day to the future employer. I am May Britania, 45 years old. I am from Negros Occidental, Philippines. I am married with 3 lovely children, one girl and two boys. They are 21, 11 and 9 years old. I want to work in Hongkong because I am looking for a higher salary to help my family and for the future of my children. Also Hongkong is a safe country, employers follow the contract, and employers give weekly day off for helper. I have almost 7 years working experience in Kuwait for two different employers. I worked as a nanny with my first employer for more than 2 years from 2019 to 2021. I took care 1 infant 9 months old and 1 toddler 3 years old. My duties included: preparing milk, sterilized baby bottle, bathing an infant and a toddler, changing clothes and diaper, feeding the child, preparing meals a healthy foods and snacks playing with them, putting the child to sleep and I read them a story book before bedtime, keeping the child safe and clean. If the children are still asleep or at a school, I take the opportunity to clean the house, washing clothes and ironing. After my contract with my first employer ended, I returned to the Philippines and apply to work in Hongkong. Unfortunately I have no enough money for processing the papers so I decided to go back to Kuwait to work and save money. I worked more than 4 years with my second employer in Kuwait. I served 6 members of the family 2 adults, 1 elderly, 3 children. The children are 14, 13, 9 years old. My main duties are cleaning, ironing, washing, cooking, and assisting my employer when she cook in the kitchen, I am preparing necessary ingredients and everything she needs for cooking, I ensure that all kitchen supplies are complete and not expired, and I list down the items that need to be purchased. I also assist the children in the kitchen if they want something to do. My expectation for my new job in Hongkong I hope to find a kind, generous, and respectful employer, any nationality, have own room for helper, I have NC2 certificate. I am hardworking, reliable, working independently, kind and patient. My favorite things to do are cooking, taking care of children
